FROM: Paul F. Miller
Engineer of Construction

Charles J. Arnold
Engineer of Design

SUBJECT: Joint Construction and Design Instructional Memorandum 1995-A
Hazardous Waste Identification Numbers (MID Numbers)

In the past when hazardous waste identification numbers (MID numbers) were needed, they were obtained from the Environmental Protection Agency. On November 14, 1994, the Michigan Department of Natural Resources assumed the responsibility for issuing MID numbers.

Therefore, when applying for a MID number send your Notification of Regulated Waste Activity Forms (8700-12) and related correspondence to:

Attention: Notification Program Coordinators
Michigan Department of Natural Resources
Waste Management Division
P.O. Box 30241
Lansing, Michigan 48909
(517) 373-2730

Phone and FAX Numbers:

John Loeffler	Phone: (517) 335-5035	FAX: (517) 373-4797
Don Clingersmith	Phone: (517) 335-5139

In the past, any needed MID numbers were obtained by the District Resident/Project Engineer or Resource Specialist. Henceforth, any Design Unit which has a project needing a MID number for construction will obtain the MID number during the project's design phase. The MID numbers will be placed on the note sheet for road projects or on the general plan of structure sheet for bridge projects.
